Offenses charged:

1. Attempted Enticement of a Minor
2. Attempted Transportation of a Minor with Intent to Engage in Prostitution

Date of Detention Hearing: February 10, 2022.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(f) and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. Defendant has been charged with offenses involving a victim under the age of 18 in violation of 18 USC §§2242, 2423. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

2. Defendant poses a risk of flight based on prior international travel and inconsistent information regarding his financial assets and access to a passport. He has been charged with a ten-year mandatory minimum offense, which provides an incentive to flee. Defendant is a danger to the community based on the nature of the alleged offense involving threats of violence and allegations of assault, coupled with repeated harassment of domestic partners and a violation of a protective order. Defendant does not have a viable release address and does not contest detention at this time.

3. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial, and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

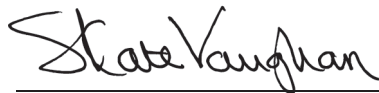

2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a

01 court proceeding; and

- 02 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for
03 the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Probation Services
04 Officer.

05 DATED this 10th day of February, 2022.
